

In 1967 Miss M. A. Evans gave £1,000 to the Lower Sapey Housing Association to provide a sum by which her sister Mrs. Ruth Lyon might be remembered. The income from this sum was designed to provide better heating arrangements at the church and also to be used for suitable charitable purposes.

In 1970 the sum of £252 was spent on church repairs. The Minutes show, over the years, a record of much care for the church, and considerable interest in maintaining it in good repair.

New Days and Ways

So much for the past. But what of the future? Anciently the Church was at the heart of parish life; now it tends to be on the circumference, though this is not true of Harpley where the Church is a focal point in the parish life. But its influence could easily wane. In the country, people still have a deep affection for their parish church. But will there be a bi-centenary in 2076? It all depends on us of today; on our steadfastness and faithful witness, and on our determination to pass on the Faith to the younger generation. The Centenary Celebration Service to be held on Trinity Sunday, June 13th, 1976, has as its theme, and rightly, Thanksgiving for the blessings of the past; and equally rightly, Dedication of the present and the future to God, His principles and the Christian cause. The second Lesson in the service reminds the present generation that the Temple of God is not built of materials, but of LIVING STONES, which Temple we are.
